

BEAU-RIVAGE PALACE
LAUSANNE SWITZERLAND

PRESS RELEASE
April 1st, 2021

Beau-Rivage Palace reopens on April 1st, 2021

Located on the banks of Lake Geneva at the foot of the Swiss Alps, the Beau-Rivage Palace is reopening its doors today, just in time for spring.

As the property marks its 160th anniversary, the hotel has taken advantage of the temporary closure and is debuting several upgrades. The Beau-Rivage wing is undergoing a glorious renovation, and the new Cinq Mondes Spa boasts a fresh space and innovative wellness concepts.

With its ten acres of lakeside private gardens and five restaurants and bars, the Beau-Rivage Palace is committed to the highest level of cleanliness and hygiene measures throughout every touch point of the guest experience. This protocol guarantees the safety and well-being of guests and staff members, ensuring a successful summer for the Swiss destination hotel.

About the Beau-Rivage Palace

The Beau-Rivage Palace is situated on ten acres of private gardens, adjacent to Lake Geneva with spectacular views of the Swiss Alps. The property's two Michelin starred restaurant, Anne-Sophie Pic at the Beau-Rivage Palace, features the most Michelin starred female Chef in the world. Other amenities include two bars and terraces, a Cinq Mondes Spa, two tennis courts and a special program for children.

Beau-Rivage Palace is part of Sandoz Foundation Hotels, a collection of Swiss luxury hotels.
