

BEAU-RIVAGE PALACE
LAUSANNE SWITZERLAND

“KIDS ARE KING” PROGRAM

At the Beau-Rivage Palace we are certainly catering to the next generation of guests.

Our policy: Kids are Kings!

Apart from the obvious personalized check-in, special amenities and entertainment in the room, and their exclusive menu at the Café and in room service, children have many reasons to plead their parents to stay at the Beau-Rivage Palace.

First of all, there is Bori. He's sharp, he's quick, he's suave yet kind and he's a fox! Bori, the Beau-Rivage Palace's mascot will be the perfect friend away from home for the little ones checking in. They may even see him sitting by the stairs of the Café, welcoming those coming in!

To ensure that our young guests become properly acquainted with our vast property, we have created a unique treasure hunt. It's a simple board game suitable for children from 3 years of age. The hunt consists on discovering different parts of the hotel by following a series of sketches on the board and obtaining stickers for every area discovered. Once the board is completed and all the stickers are stuck, a surprise will await the child in the reception.

We'd like our children's experience to be complete, so how about learning a thing or two during their stay? Children from the age of 6 can join the Chef in the pastry kitchen and learn how to make chocolates, cookies, sweets, cakes and breads. Once they are done with cooking the goodies, our inhouse florists await them to teach them all about the art and secrets of flower arrangements.

Last but certainly not least, mothers and daughters (from 12 years old) will be able to indulge together in our brand signature “Cinq Mondes” spa that opened its doors in December 2005. We've created special packages particularly designed for mothers and daughters to enjoy the ultimate pampering experience together whilst spending quality time relaxing body and soul. As for the men of the family? How about waiting for the ladies while disputing a tennis match on our hotel's courts?

For every age and personality, we provide the experience that will render a child's stay at the Beau-Rivage Palace truly unforgettable.
